Donegal and the Inishowen Peninsula

The road west from Beech Hill leads to Donegal's Inishowen Peninsula - quiet country roads, thatched cottages and breathtaking scenery.

1. Drive down onto one of Ireland's most beautiful bays, Kinnegoe Bay. Stroll along the sands. You will probably be quite alone.
2. Follow 'Inishowen 100' signs to Malin Head and gaze west over the Atlantic's waves.
3. Stop at the viewing park and look down on glorious Five Finger Strand.
4. Turn off the N13 for the Grianan of Aileach, a fabulously atmospheric stone fort dating back to 1700 BC. Great views.
5. Motor on through Letterkenny to Glenveagh National Park, the dramatic peak of Mount Errigal and the Donegal coast.
